

ENERGY EMPLOYEES OCCUPATIONAL ILLNESS COMPENSATION PROGRAM (EEOICPA)
SUBTITLE D

TIMELINE

October 2000	The Energy Employees Occupational Illness Compensation Program Act (EEOICPA) is signed into law (Public Law 106-398)
December 2000	Executive Order 13179 assigns EEOICPA implementation roles and responsibilities to Department of Health and Human Services, Department of Labor, and Department of Energy and directs DOE to list covered facilities in the Federal Register.
December 2000	DOE formally designates the Office of Worker Advocacy to implement EEOICPA Subtitle D.
January 2001	EEOICPA Covered Facilities List is first published in the Federal Register.
May 2001	DOL issues Interim Final Rule, begins processing cases.
July 31, 2001	Statutory deadline for start of EEOICPA program; DOE begins accepting Subtitle D applications for review by Physician Panels. Energy Employees Compensation Resource Centers begin operation.
September 2001	DOE issues Notice of Proposed Rulemaking for Physician Panel Rule.
October 2001	Department of Health and Human Services issues Notices of Proposed Rulemaking for Dose Reconstruction and Probability of Causation.
December 2001	Congress passes amendments to EEOICPA (Section 3151 of Public Law 107-107).
January 2002	DOE begins contracting with Science and Engineering Associates (SEA), through Department of the Navy SPAWAR, to study and then provide support for EEOICPA Subtitle D operations.

May 2002	Department of Health and Human Services issues Final Rules for Dose Reconstruction and Probability of Causation.
August 2002	DOE issues Final Rule for Physician Panels (effective September 13, 2002).
December 2002	Department of Labor issues Final EEOICPA Regulations.